

Copyright Assignment for the American Journal of Botany:

Before publication of the materials submitted by the author(s) in the American Journal of Botany, the author(s) hereby assign copyright ownership to the Botanical Society of America of:

Manuscript No.:

Title:

Authors:

In submitting material to the American Journal of Botany, authors warrant that the submitted material is original, that it has not been published elsewhere, that the copyright ownership has not been assigned to another party, and that permissions have been obtained and are attached for any portions of the material to be published subject to another copyright. The author(s) also indemnifies(y) the American Journal of Botany and its publisher, the Botanical Society of America, against any and all claims arising out of those warranties.

This assignment is subject to the following conditions:

- Authors reserve all proprietary rights, other than copyright.
- Authors reserve the right, after publication of the material in the American Journal of Botany, to use all or part of the material in compilations or other publications of the authors' own works.
- Authors also reserve the right to make copies of all or part of the material as defined under "fair use" (U.S. law Title 17, Chapter 1, Sect. 107), i.e., "for purposes such as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching (including multiple copies for classroom use), scholarship, or research".
- Authors reserve the right to post preprints or the accepted manuscript on personal or departmental webpages; the Botanical Society of America requests that a link be provided to the published article on the American Journal of Botany web site.

If any author's signature is absent below, that author must contact the Editorial Office directly to confirm that s/he has participated in the work.
